Losilly Perfumes is pleased to announce that its newest fragrance, Pink Roses, has been named Fragrance of the Year by the World Perfume Council. The council considers dozens of entries every year, and the award carries a great deal of prestige in the industry. This is the first time any of Losilly's fragrances has received this honor. Pink Roses uniquely combines the scent of freshly picked roses with a hint of vanilla.

The Pink Roses scent had a limited release early this year and is still sold exclusively online. The fragrance will be available in stores next month.
